DISCLOSURE BY THE BREEDER/SELLER OF KNOWN PROBLEMS TO EXIST IN PUREBRED (ENGLISH) BULLDOGS.

The following items are to disclose to the buyer(s) problems known to exist in the Bulldog Breed. The Bulldog is widely known to have, throat (elongated pallet), nose, ear, eye, tracheas, joint, ligament, demodectic, mange, tendon, heart, allergy, skin, breathing, heat tolerance, hip and spine problems and defects, amongst other less prominent genetic problems and defects that are too often undetectable by the breeder or the examining veterinarian at birth or during the first year of life of this Bulldog.

Bulldogs are very sensitive to heat, very hard to cool down if overheated, the buyer(s) will be ever so cautious about walking your Bulldog, to make sure the distance is tolerable, enjoyable and does not threaten the dogs well being. Only walk a Bulldog during the coolest time of the 24 hour day. NEVER leave a Bulldog in a car or vehicle without the air conditioning operating, they can overheat in 2 to 3 minutes, faster than any other breed of dog with fatal results.

Be aware as with any dog, an unleashed Bulldog left to run loose in an unfenced or unprotected area can end up injured or tragically dead from a vehicle or other animals. Bulldogs should never be tethered to an object. They should be leashed only to a person. Collars should fit the Bulldogs necks very loosely, be large enough so as to create no constant tension to the throat and not restrict the Bulldogs free breathing.

BULLDOGS CANNOT SWIM. BEWARE OF POOLS AND WATER OF ANY DEPTH.

The Buyer(s) are hereby informed in this disclosure, that the Bulldog breed of dog will have high medical expense, could or may have extensive medical care and expense in its lifetime and the buyer(s) will be aware and prepared for that, or opt, at this time, not to purchase this dog, or a Bulldog.

Because of the genetics inherent in the Bulldog Breed the previously described Bulldog is sold as-is, excepted only by any conditions agreed to in writing by the breeder/seller and buyer(s).
